I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free, I'm following the path God laid for me. I took his hand when I heard his call, I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day, To laugh, to love, to work, to play. Tasks left undone must stay that way, I've found that peace at the close of the day. If my parting has left a void, Then fill it with remembered joy. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, Ah yes, these things I too will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow, I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My Life's been full, I savored much, Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch, Perhaps my time seemed all too brief, Don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your heart and share with me, God wanted me now, He set me FREE.

Acknowledgement

Our sincere thanks to our many family members and friends. The staff of Summer Brook Health Care Center and Community Hospice of Northeast Florida, for every act of kindness and sympathy shown during the hour of our bereavement. Your thoughtfulness made the burden easier to bear. May God's blessing be with you and His grace sustain you. Thank you.

Obituary

Mrs. Barbara Jean Kelly-Williams, was born to the late, Mrs. Bertha Lee Kelly and Mr. Tom Kelly, Jr., on November 30, 1938, in Jacksonville, Florida. She was the second child of three siblings, all beautiful girls. Earnestine D. Kelly, preceded her in death.

Brought up in a Christian family, she was baptized at Dayspring Baptist Church, on Jefferson Street, by the late Pastor Cyrus Weaver. Barbara accepted Christ as her personal savior at an early age. She served on the usher board and sang in a gospel quartet.

Mrs. Williams received her education in the public schools of Duval County, in Jacksonville, FL, graduating from Stanton Vocational School in 1957. She worked as a school Crossing Guard until her retirement in 1998. Her hobby was having a “green thumb”, she enjoyed reviving plants.

In 1955, she met Martin Ferguson and from this union, one child was born (Beverly Joyce Kelly) to rejoice the memory of a mother who loved, cared and was concerned about her welfare until death. Mrs. Williams had a loving and devoted family, who visited and provided for her needs on a daily basis during her stay at the Summer Brook Health Care Center (formerly known as, Eartha MM. White Health Care Center). She departed this life on Friday, January 9, 2015.

She leaves to cherish her memories, loving and devoted family members, a daughter, Beverly Joyce Kelly; grandchildren, Gregory Kelly, Sabrina Kelly, Devon Kelly and Kimberly Kelly; a devoted and loving sister, Thomasina K. Crews (Reecie); 5 great-grandchildren, DeQuantist, Ronald, Gregneisha, Alexis and Kevaris; nieces and nephews, LaBarfield Bryant, Jr., Denise Watkins, Sonya Curry, Wilbert Kelly, Tonya Jackson, Sherell Shako (Mark), and Trecie Crews; a host of cousins, other relatives and many sorrowing friends, among them are Tavoris Delancy and Emma Dean.
