My Last Request

Please don't say that I gave up, just that I gave in. Don't say I lost the battle, for it was God's war to win. Please don't say how good I was, but that I did my best. Just say I tried to do what is right, to give the most I could, not less. Please don't give me wings or a halo, that's for God to do. I want no more that I deserve, no extras, just my due. Please don't give me flowers or talk real harsh tones. Don't be concerned about me now, I'm with God, I've made it home. Don't talk about my illness it's over and it's done. Just see to all my family's needs especially the little ones. When you paint a picture of me, don't paint me as a saint. I've done some good, I've don't some wrong, so use your paint. Not just the bright and light tones use some gray and dark. In fact, don't put me on canvass; paint me in your heart. Don't' just remember good times, but remember all the bad. For life is full of many things, some happy and some sad, but if you must do something then I have one request, forgive me for the wrong I've done and with the love that's left. Thank God for my soul is resting, thank God for I've been blessed. Thank God for all who loved me. Praise God He loved me best.
