Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road, and the sun has set for me, I want no rites in a gloom-filled room. Why cry for a soul set free? Miss me a little-but not for long! And not with your head bowed low, Remember the love that we shared; Miss me-but let me go. For life is a journey that we all must take and each must go alone. It's all part of the Master's Plan, a step on the road to home. When you are lonely and sick at heart, go to the friends we know, laugh at the things we use to do; Miss me-But Let Me Go!

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card, or sat quietly in a chair. Perhaps you sent a floral spray, if so, we saw it there. Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend would say. Perhaps you were not there at all; just thought of us that day. Whatever you did to console our hearts, We thank you very much whatever the part, May God bless you.

Eric departed this life on Saturday, July 11, 2015. He was preceded in death by his grandmother, Onah B. Mobley and stepfather, Alfred L. Lance.

Eric leaves to cherish his memories his mother, Ella Lance; Father, Victor Burt (Sadie); daughter, Kendra Thomas Ward (Willie); sisters, Subrina Harris (Michael), Faye Lance, Appearingday Burt, Vicki Bailey, Natasha Morris (Calvin), Tegjula Hilburn (Craig); grandson, Judah Thomas; stepmother, Earlene Burt; aunt, Teresa Bell; special cousin, Elmira Adams (Fred); uncle, Raymond Lance (Cheryl); god brother, Darren Merrill; best friend, Pastor Michael Baker, and a host of other relatives and friends.

Those We Love Remain With Us

Those we love remain with us for love itself lives on, and cherished memories never fade because a loved one's gone. Those we love can never be more than a thought apart, far as long as there is memory, they'll live on in the heart.
