*"A wise man once said, "We make a living by what we get;
we make a life by what we give.."*

On behalf of the Williams family, we thank you from the depths of our hearts for the love and the many acts of kindness shown during the life, illness and transition of our beloved, Mr. Harry L. Williams. Our father was a wonderful, clever, engaging individual who had an innate ability to connect with all those he encountered. Through the memories that he gave each of us he will live on in our hearts forever. It is our sincere prayer that God continues to smile upon your lives and shed a beacon of light upon you during our time of sorrow. Please continue to keep the family in your prayers."

Obituary

Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. 2 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. 3 He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. 4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. 5 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. 6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

To My Lovely Grandparents.

Heavens rejoiced as you were called home.

We can't even imagine the glory

I've only known you over 20 years, but God knew your whole story.

God knew you two would meet and the children you would have

He knew she'd make the perfect mother and you the perfect dad.

Now, Grandma left before you and her absence was surely felt

Just me thinking of your love simply makes my heart melt.

Now, finally It was your turn to go home, the bright light you approached.

Angels have been working overtime preparing your wings and robe.

As the gates opened to greet you, the angels came to meet you.

There was a little commotion from an angel saying "Someone wants to see you"

As you press your way through the crowd, with your head held down

There stood your lovely wife and daughter and in their hands your crown.

His face lit up as he saw their smiling faces.

No more suffering Daddy says Harolyn

No more pain says Rosetta

No more tears, no more fears we are with The Lord forever!

What about the kids, and those we've left behind? asked Harry

Don't worry they'll be here to greet us in due time.

We've raised our kids, they know how to live right.

They know in order to see us again they must accept Christ.

So don't worry Harry they are good, this house is now your home

But our only question for you is...What took you so long!
