Appreciation

Our hearts are so full of love and gratitude to all of you. Your prayers, words of compassion, flowers, calls, visits and the many kind acts, both seen and unseen, have sustained us throughout our time of sorrow. Your thoughtfulness will forever be remembered. We thank God for friends like you. May God forever bless and smile upon you.

Obituary

Darius Duron Henry Williams was born on April 5, 1998 in Shand’s Hospital to Teresa Williams and Mickey Hill. He was a loving and outgoing son, brother and friend with an infectious smile that brightened the day of anyone who encountered him.

Darius had a passion for ministry and had an aspiration to become a minister. Darius dedicated his life to God at the tender age of seven, and was baptized at the age of eight. He dutifully served as a youth leader, videographer, usher and helper at Life Point Church under the guidance and direction of Pastor Lena Thompson.

Darius was an honor student at The Potter’s House Christian Academy where he was a proud senior and member of the graduating class of 2016. He was an avid lover of sports and a member of both the football and basketball teams. He was known amongst his peers for his playful joking nature and sincere friendship.

Darius was preceded in death by his uncle, Tyrone Williams.

Darius leaves to cherish his memory: his loving mother, Teresa Williams; father, Mickey (Tomeka) Hill; stepfather, Ike Damon; 6 brothers, Tyrick Williams, Micardo Wallace, Shaquille Williams, Mickey Hill Jr., Malik Hill, and Cameron Wallace; godfather, James Dorsey; 3 aunts, Barbara P. Player, Sandra Norman, and Mercedes Holcomb; 3 uncles, Raymond Williams, Edward Hodges, and Rickey Hill; 4 great uncles, Lawrence Williams, James Kinsey, Bobby Kinsey, and Lewis Kinsey; 2 grandmothers, Ceola Williams, and Barbara H. Player; 2 grandfathers, Early Kinsey, and Thomas Player; devoted cousins, Felicia Williams, Brittnee Henry, Brandon Williams, Eric Fuller, and Takia Williams; god-brother, Kaleb Dorsey; god-sister, Aisha Dorsey and a host of cousins and many sorrowful friends.

Precious Memories

A son, a brother, a nephew, a cousin or as a friend, you've touched so many lives - the list will never end. We will never forget the sound of your laugh or the comfort of your voice, that inspiring sound that always made our hearts rejoice. We will always remember seeing you smile, and the joy you got playing ball or just goofing off with friends while cracking jokes in the hall.

God used you to touch us all, you were a precious tool, whether it was at helping at home or in church and sometimes even at school. We knew that Jesus was your Savior, the bible was your sword, you were never ashamed to proclaim Jesus as your Lord. Those days with you are now past and gone, but the memory of you and your thoughtful ways will always live on. Our hearts are filled with sadness, our eyes filled with tears, but we thank God for sharing you with us for 17 faithful years. So we thank Him for you, and for His saving grace. We will meet you again up yonder, once we see Him face to face.
