Biographical Sketch

Elizabeth Bradley Fairley was born in Barnwell County in Allendale, South Carolina on March 10, 1917 to Johnson Bradley and Susie Priester. She was the youngest of five children. She attended school in Blackshear, Georgia and furthered her education at Savannah State College. Elizabeth later moved to Jacksonville, Florida where her love for children led her to a career in education; first at Head Start and later as an assistant teacher at S.A. Hull Elementary, where she retired in her late 80s. Elizabeth was a baptized believer and long standing member of St. Paul Lutheran Church.

Elizabeth met and married the late Elbert Maulsby, Sr. From this union two children were born, Elbert Maulsby, Jr., and John Maulsby.

On May 23, 1945, Elizabeth married the late James Wendell Fairley, whom passed away in 1976. From this union, four children were born, Leonard Earl Fairley (Hannah), Wendell James Fairley (Carolyn), Carolyn Fairley Morrison, and Maggie Fairley Alford (James).

Elizabeth entered into eternal rest on Wednesday evening, November 18, 2015, in Jacksonville, Florida.

Elizabeth was blessed with 17 grandchildren: Markeisha Maulsby, Elbert Michael Maulsby II, Travis Maulsby, Latashia Fairley, Leonard Fairley Robinson, Melinda Fairley, Makel Fairley, Adrian Corey Fairley, Nina Fairley Busch, Quentin Griffin, Antonio Malone, Angelita Malone, Masani Morrison, Marlena Alford, James Alford IV, Justin Alford, and Johnathan Alford. She also had 26 great-grandchildren, one great-great grandchild, and a plethora of nieces, nephews, other relatives, and family friends.

Elizabeth was the most loving and graceful woman that God could have blessed a family with. Her days were long and her life was full. We hope her loving, kindness, and grace be granted to her descendants here now and those to come. As she continues her eternal journey with God, we will always keep her in our thoughts and in our hearts.

A Tribute

God saw the road was getting rough, the hill was hard to climb.
He gently closed those loving eyes, and whispered
“Peace Be Thine.”

The weary hours, the days of pain, the sleepless nights have passed; the ever patient worn-out frame has found sweet rest at last.

God Saw that you were weary, so He did what He knows best.
He came and stood beside you, and whispered,
“Come and Rest.”
