To Those I Love & Those That Love Me

When I am gone, release me, let me go; I have so many things to see and do; you must not tie yourself to me with tears; be happy that we had so many years; I gave you my love, you can only guess how much you gave me in happiness; I thank you for the love you have shown but now it's time I traveled on alone.

So grieve a while for me, if grieve you must then let your grief be comforted by trust. It's only for a while that we must part, so bless the memories within your heart.

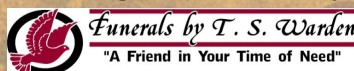

I won't be far away for life goes on so if you need me, call and I will come though you can't see me or touch me, I'll be near. And if you listen with your heart, you will hear, all my love around you, loud and clear. And then, when you must come this way alone, I'll greet you at Heaven's gate with a smile and a "Welcome Home."

Acknowledgement

We would like to express our sincere appreciation and gratitude to our family members and friends for the many kind words, thoughts, prayers and other acts of kindness that have been extended to us during the loss of our beloved Fran. Our prayer is that God will continue to shower you with blessings.

Obituary

Franchester Suzette Reaves affectionately known as “Fran” was born on February 18, 1954 to Winford Reaves and Vivian Reaves. Fran received her formal education through the New York City Public School Systems. She pursued a career as a Respiratory Technician. In the late 1970’s Fran relocated to Jacksonville Florida where she married Morris Basiden. She furthered her education and obtained degree's in Nursing and Hospitality Management. Fran's career spanned over thirty years in the medical field, she did traveling nursing, pharmacy technician and home healthcare; and she was even a Real Estate Agent.

Some years later, Fran divorced and made her way to Amelia Island, American Beach. How she love American Beach with all its historical history, and in her spare time she volunteered at the American Beach Museum. Fran was a collector of sea shells and made pictures out of them. She was at her best living by the beach. Everyone she met will remember her wonderful smile and bubbly personality, her spirit and personality was contagious, she was liked and loved by many.

Fran transitioned home on Wednesday, April 20, 2016 at 7:22 am, she took that final climb to the stairway of heaven. Upon her arrival she was met by her father; two older sisters; a younger brother; and some cousin's. She was embraced with comfort and love.

Fran has a host of friend's and extended family members she left to mourn her departure, a mother, Vivian Reaves of North Carolina; two sisters, JuLane James (Jessie) of New York and Pamela Reaves of North Carolina; three nieces, Danielle, Jeannine and Whitney; two nephews, Jamal and Jahi; one grandnephew, Miles; one grandniece, Neelah; spiritual sisters, Cynthia, Faye, Gwen, Debra and Gail; and a host of other relatives and friends.
