Miss Me-But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me, I want no rites in a gloom-filled room, why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little- but not for long!

And not with your head bowed low. Remember the love that we once shared, Miss me, but let me go.

For this is a journey that we all must take; and each must go alone; It's all part of the Master's plan a step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick at heart, go to the friends we know and bury your sorrows in doing good deeds,

Miss me, but let me go.

Tears will leave no stains, time will ease the pain, for every light that fades, something beautiful remains.

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you made a comforting call or sat quietly in a chair. Perhaps you sent a card or dish of food; if so, we saw it there. Perhaps you spoke the kindest words any friend could say. Perhaps you were not there at all; just continued to pray and thought of us that day. Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you so much. May God bless you.
