Miss Me-But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me, I want no rites in a gloom-filled room, why cry for a soul set free? Miss me a little- but not for long! And not with your heads bowed low. Remember the love that we once shared, miss me, but let me go. For this journey that we all must take; and each must go alone; It's all part of the Master's plan a step on the road to home. When you are lonely and sick at heart, go to the hill we know and bury your sorrows among the trees. Miss me, but let me go.

Acknowledgement

We would like to express our sincere appreciation and gratitude to our family members and friends for the many kind words, thoughts, prayers and other acts of kindness that have been extended to us during the loss of our love one. Our prayer is that God will continue to bless each of you.

Life's Journey for Mitchell Jerome Hart

Mitchell Jerome Hart began life on October 28, 1953, when his parents Mitchell and Berthenia Hart received their second son with much joy. Most of Mitchell (Jeep) Jerome Hart life was spent in Marion County. He attended Marion County Public Schools and graduated from North Marion High School. Enlarging his horizon, he moved to Bridgeport, Connecticut for a few years. Later returning to his native environment to live among and enjoy family and friends. Mitchell was well liked by all with his joking and fun filled attitude. He was loved and will be greatly missed by many.

Mitchell became a member of Woodland Place Church of Christ in the early 2000. He was stricken with an illness that lasted until the Lord called him home on Sunday, May 1, 2016.

Mitchell leaves to cherish memories of precious times spent together with his loving and devoted twin daughters, Charity Hart and Hope Hart of Sparr, Florida; son, Mitchell Hart Jr. (Kristian) of Bridgeport, Connecticut; a mother of great devotion and sacrificial caring of her dear son, Berthenia Hart of Ocala, Florida; brothers, Lester Hart (Rose) of Ocala, Florida, Charlie Bernard Johnson and Riki Gardener of Ft. Lauderdale, Florida, Keith Morgan (Vanessa) of Los Angeles, California; aunt, Poncianna Jackson (Louis) of Jacksonville, Florida; uncles, Kermit Hart of Chicago, Illinois, Neggley Tuggerson of Anthony, Florida; a host of sorrowing nieces, nephews, cousins and friends; special mentioning of a dear friend, Chesterline Scott, of Sparr, Florida and his devoted and compassionate minister, Victor C. Jerrell whom visited and prayed with Mitchell every Wednesday afternoon during his illness.
