I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I am free. I'm following the path God laid for me. I took his hand when I heard him call. I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day to laugh, to love, to work or play. Tasks left undone must stay that way. I found that place at the close of the day. If my parting has left a void, then fill it with remembered joy. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, oh yes, these things, I will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow, I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life has been full, I've savored much, good friends, good times, a loved one's touch. Perhaps my time seemed all too brief, don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Light your hearts and share with me, God wanted me now, He set me Free.

Obituary

As A symbol of His love, God breathed Willa Dean into existence on July 27, 1946 to the late Mr. James Miller and Mrs. Lugenia Copeland Miller Woods.

Willa Dean attended the Lowndes County Public Education System. She has resided over the past fifty years in Jacksonville, Florida. Creating a family of children, grandchildren, numerous relatives, and friends. What a boisterous and vibrant voice that was so full of life. You would always know she was coming, she had such a way with words that she could make you laugh until you cry, and leave you speechless. With the laughter also came great wisdom.

Willa Dean departed this life on Tuesday, August 23, 2016. She was preceded in death by her parents.

Willa Dean leaves to cherish loving memories to her six sons, Stanley, Pernell, Cecil, Richard, Francis, and Johnny (Eva); two daughters, Wanetta Joyce and Catherine Joyce Mathis; siblings, Arthur Miller (Irene), Mae Lois Miller, Lillie Bah (Omar), and Maxine Parrish (Eddie); grandchildren and great-grandchildren whom loved her and was devoted to her; an abundance of nieces, nephews, other relatives, and friends.
