

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures, he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul; he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou prepares a table before me in the presence of mine enemies, thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

Acknowledgement

We the family of the late Stanley A. Sullivan are most grateful to God for the gift of friends like you who have been so kind and thoughtful during these hours of sorrow. Your visits, cards, flowers, and every act of kindness has given us strength and inspiration for the facing of this hour. Our prayer is that God would bless each of you.

Life Reflections of Stanley Andreas Sullivan

Stanley Andreas Sullivan was born on January 13, 1963 in Jacksonville, Florida. He was the eldest child to Shirl L Sullivan (Thomason). Stanley was educated in the Duval County School System and received his General Education Diploma from Florida Junior College. He also received vocational training through Job Corps.

Stanley was affectionately known by his family as “Pokey”. Although his name was Pokey he was no slow poke. In his youth, he was known for his speed on the track and agility on the football field. His career field was home improvement, and he excelled as a painter. In adulthood, he enjoyed nothing more than a quiet day of fishing. Stanley departed this life on Friday, October 7, 2016.

Stanley is survived by his loving and devoted mother, Shirl Thomason (Jimmie); wife, Annette Burroughs Sullivan; brother; Carlos Spencer (Debbie); sister, Kay Cardona (Victor); daughters, Shonnika and Stannisha; two grandsons; a host of aunts, cousins, nieces, nephews and many other loving friends.

Time is too slow for those who wait,
Too swift for those who fear,
Too long for those who grieve,
Too short for those who rejoice,
But for those who love,
time is Eternity.
