23rd Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures, he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul; he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou prepares a table before me in the presence of mine enemies, thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

Acknowledgements

We would like to express our sincere appreciation and gratitude to our family members and friends for the many kind words, thoughts, prayers and other acts of kindness that have been extended to us during our time of bereavement. May God continue to bless each of you.

Obituary

Eugene Thomas Hagan "Genie Boy" was born to the late Esther Hall and Enoch Hagan on June 14, 1948. He received his education in the Duval County Schools, graduating from Eugene J. Butler Jr./Sr. High School, 900 Acorn Street. Eugene joined the United States Army and then entered the National Guard. He also attended college at Florida Community College at Jacksonville.

Eugene was known to some as "Genie Boy" and others as "Paper Boy" on the Westside of Jacksonville where his nephews, neighbors, and community all helped.

Eugene departed this life on Monday, December 5, 2016 at St. Vincent's Hospital. He was preceded in death by his parents and siblings, Floyd, Herbert, Theresa Davis, Carrie Mae Smith, and Hazel Hagan.

Eugene leaves to cherish his memory one son, Demetrius Bell, Sr.; grandson, Demetrius Bell, Jr.; brother, James Hagan (Lorraine); sisters, Lena Allen (Dave Solomon), Edna Nicks, Deloris Dunn, and Annette Marcus; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and the entire Westside community.

~A Fallen Limb~

A limb has fallen from the family tree. I keep hearing a voice that says "Grieve Not For Me". Remember the best times, the laughter, and the song. The good life I lived while I was strong. Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you. Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through. My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest. Remembering all, how I truly was blessed. Continue traditions, no matter how small. Go on with your life, don't worry about falls. I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin. Until the day comes we're together again.
