23rd Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures, he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul; he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou prepares a table before me in the presence of mine enemies, thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever. Amen!

Acknowledgements

We would like to say thank you to our many family members and friends for every act of kindness and gratitude for the many expressions of love shown to us during the loss of our beloved Gwendolyn. Your calls, cards, visits, flowers, and prayers have given us strength and comfort for the journey ahead. May God continue to bless each of you.

Celebrating the life of Gwendolyn E. Bell

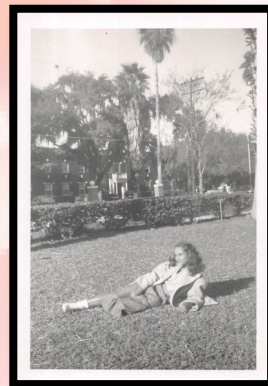

Gwendolyn Elizabeth Lee Bell was born May 14, 1926 to Ralph and Ada Lee in New London, Connecticut. She was baptized at an early age and later recommitted her life at Ebenezer United Methodist Church.

Gwendolyn attended Darnell Cookman, Davis Street School, and graduated from Old Stanton High School in 1944. Gwendolyn attended Bethune Cookman College and graduated in 1955 with a degree in Education; where she taught Elementary School for over 30 years. She met and married William Bernard Langley, Sr. and to this union two children, William and Bennye were born. Later, Gwendolyn met and married Cecil Douglas Bell for 38 happy years.

Gwendolyn departed this life on Tuesday, December 27, 2016. She was preceded in death by her parents, Ralph and Ada Lee; husband, Cecil Douglas Bell; sister, Gertrude Styles.

Gwendolyn leaves to cherish loving memories a son, William B. Langley Jr. (Darlene); daughters, Bennye B. Langley Malone-Cansler (Wade); grandchildren, Carmen N. Malone, Thomas W. Malone, Shawn Fountain, Jerad Sams (Marie), William B. Burney (Tasha), Gwendolyn I. Langley; great-grandchildren, Samaria Fountain, Brianna Fountain, and Isaeal Fountain; godchildren, Bliss L. Thompson and James Brightman Jr.; and a host of other relatives and many loyal friends.

"A Mother's Love"

There is no other love like a Mother's love.....

A Mother's love: Is a sanctuary, where our souls can find sweet rest from the struggle and tension of life's fast and futile questions.

A Mother's love: Is like a tower, rising far above the crowd and her smile is like the sunshine, breaking through a threatening cloud.

A Mother's love: Is like a beacon, burning bright with faith and prayer and through the changing scenes of life we can find a haven there.

A Mother's love: Is fashioned after God's enduring love, it is endless and unending, like the love of Him above.

For God knew in His great wisdom that He couldn't be everywhere, so He put His little children in a loving mother's care.

Lord I thank you for the world's greatest mother you gave us.

We will love you always, William and Bennye
