~A Fallen Limb~

A limb has fallen from the family tree. I keep hearing a voice that says "Grieve Not For Me". Remember the best times, the laughter, and the song. The good life I lived while I was strong. Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you. Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through. My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest. Remembering all, how I truly was blessed. Continue traditions, no matter how small. Go on with your life, don't worry about falls. I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin. Until the day comes we're together again.

Acknowledgements

We would like to thank our many family members and friends for every act of kindness, words of comfort, your prayers, cards, telephone calls, flowers and visits extended to us during the passing of our love one. You have encouraged our hearts. May God bless each of you.

Obituary

Brother Jettie “Jimmy” Lee Leggett, III was born on August 9, 1959 to the late Jettie Lee Leggett, Jr. and Ella Mae White. Jimmy was raised and educated in Jacksonville, Florida where he also made a living with a variety of jobs ranging from chef to security officer. He will be remembered for his calmness and pleasant smile.

During his adult years in April 1987, Jimmy accepted Christ Jesus as his Lord and Savior and was baptized into Christ. Then immediately he faced with trials presented by the adversary. When Jimmy came to himself, he then fully prepared himself for the path we all must walk. He became a very active member of the Church of Christ. He stated attending worship service regularly, leading prayers, and participating in spreading the gospel. Also Jimmy worked diligently in a group ministry of the Lord’s church known as Abraham’s Sons and Sarah’s Daughter.

Jimmy passed quietly in the waiting arms of our Lord and Savior during the early hours of January 14, 2017. Jimmy surrendered to a lengthy illness and was comforted during his transition toward a new beginning by his loving sister, Mary. He was also preceded in death by his father, Jettie Lee Leggett, Jr.; mother, Ella Mae Leggett; brother, Willie “Herschey” Herschel Esters.

Jimmy leaves to honor his memory, his daughter, Candice Baker; a sister, Mary Esters-Moore both of Jacksonville, Florida; nephew, Tquan S. Moore (Leahanna) of Ft. Worth, Texas; brother-in-law, H. Lee Moore of Navarre, Florida; a lifelong high school friend, Ricky Jenkins of Jacksonville, Florida; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, aunts, uncles, friends, and many spiritual brothers and sisters in Christ Jesus.

Those We Love Remain With Us

Those we love remain with us for love itself lives on,
and cherished memories never fade because a loved one's gone.

Those we love can never be more than a thought apart,
far as long as there is memory,
they'll live on in the heart.
