~Weep Not for Me~

Weep not for me, though I have gone into that gentle night. Grieve if you will, but not for long. Upon my soul's sweet fight, I am at peace, my soul's at rest, there is no need for tears for with your love I was so blessed. For all those many years, there is no pain, I suffer not the fear is now all gone. Put now these things out of your thoughts in your memory I live on. Remember not my fight for breath, remember not the strife. Please do not dwell upon my death, but celebrate my life.

Acknowledgement

We would like to express our gratitude for your concern, kindness, calls, flowers, cards, and most of all your prayers. We are assured that God sent all of you into our lives to comfort us during the loss of our beloved Loretta. We thank you all and may God bless each of you.

A Celebration of Loretta Camilla Phew Johnson Life

Loretta Camilla Phew Johnson was born August 30, 1930 to Elmer and Eugenia Phew in Jacksonville, Florida. She was the third child of six children.

Loretta attended the local schools in Duval County, graduating from Old Stanton High School in 1948. She then went on to pursue a career in telecommunications with Southern Bell (AT&T) retiring in 1986. Loretta continued pursuing various careers and she worked in insurance and even became the secretary of her beloved church for well over 11 years.

Loretta married Oliver B. Johnson Sr., on July 25, 1956 and from this union they share six children, Oliver B., Reginald, Rosaland, Lonita, Jenae, and Terrell Sr.

Loretta departed this life on Saturday, January 14, 2017.

To Those I Love & Those That Love Me

When I am gone, release me, let me go; I have so many things to see and do; you must not tie yourself to me with tears; be happy that we had so many years; I gave you my love, you can only guess how much you gave me in happiness; I thank you for the love you have shown but now it's time I traveled on alone.

So grieve a while for me, if grieve you must then let your grief be comforted by trust. It's only for a while that we must part, so bless the memories within your heart.

I won't be far away for life goes on, so if you need me call and I will come, though you can't see me or touch me, I'll be near. And if you listen with your heart, you will hear, all my love around you, loud and clear. And then, when you must come this way alone, I'll greet you at Heaven's gate with a smile and a "Welcome Home."
