Sisters of the Church

So live, that when thy summons come to join the innumerable caravan, which moves to that mysterious realm, which each shall take His chamber in the silent halls of death. Thou go not, like the quarry slave at night, scrouged to his dungeon, but sustained and soothed by an unfaltering trust approach thy grave like one who wraps the drapery of his couch about him,
and lies down to pleasant dreams.

"Thanatopsis"- William Cullen Bryant

Obituary

A light is from our household gone, a voice we love is stilled. A place is vacant in our home, which can never be filled. God gave us a beautiful Mother..... A mother who never grew old, you were always there with a helping hand. Help us now to accept His plan.

We miss you now, our hearts are sore as time goes by, we will miss you more. Your loving smile, your gentle face, no one can take our "Mother's Place". May the choirs of Angels receive you, and may you have rest and peace everlasting. AMEN

"Loving Memories"

Mamie Jimmie (Gray) Dixon affectionately known as "Muh", was born to the late Herman and Delcena Gray on November 17, 1926 in Montgomery, Alabama. Muh attended the public schools and college in Alabama receiving an AA Degree in Business. Mamie worked for Tuskegee Institute recording flight records for the Tuskegee Airmen, She was also employed with BCBS for 23 years, where she retired. Muh was baptized at Holt St. Church of Christ in Montgomery, Alabama. After moving to Jacksonville, Florida she continued her religious affiliation with Westside Church of Christ as a faithful worker. During Muh's earlier years, she married Roosevelt D. Dixon in 1946.

On Wednesday, February 22, 2017 at 3:00 PM, God called Muh to rest. She was preceded in death by her parents; husband, Roosevelt; sister, Annie; a son, John Charles Dixon; and a grandson, Derek. Her memory will live forever in the hearts of her children, family and friends.

Muh leaves to cherish her memories a devoted son, Herman Dixon (Glory); faithful daughters, Sallie Vonn Ponder (James), Gloria Dixon, and Angelia James; sisters-in-law, Sallie Dixon Smith and Arie Lee Dixon; loving cousins, Catherine English (Richard) and Donald Jackson both of Atlanta, Georgia; 12 grandchildren, Sonya, Rick, Candace, Janada, Herman, Marcus, Josh, Bert, Cedric, Tissha, Dominique, and Brittany; 16 great-grandchildren; 2 great great-grandchildren; a host of nieces (Mary Orr); nephews; cousins; her church family; friends; and a special friend/daughter, Valerie Rodgers.
