I' Did Not Die

Do not stand at my grave and weep; I am not there;

I do not sleep. I am a thousand winds that blow.

I am the diamond glints on snow. I am the sunlight on ripened grain.

I am the gentle autumn rain.

When you awaken in the morning's hush. I am the swift uplifting rush.

Of Quiet birds in circled flight. I am the soft stars that shine at night.

Do not stand at my grave and cry.

I am not there; I did not die.

Obituary

Christine Darlene Gordon was born on July 14, 1961 in Jacksonville, Florida to Edward and Anniebelle Gordon. She attended school at Alden Road and Pine Castle until 1979 where she met her life partner of 30 years. Christine has looked after many of her great nieces and nephews. Her children will remember her as a loving mother who encouraged them to do their best in life.

Christine was accomplished at crafting and often made bracelets and beautiful statues. She was an outgoing individual who loved to dance and who was passionate about music. She was an active and dedicated member of the Eastside Garden Community. In her final years, she spent much of her time with her caregiver and niece, Bridgett Gordon.

Christine departed this life peacefully on May 5, 2017. She was preceded in death by her parents, Edward and Anniebelle Gordon; a son, Keith Gordon; brothers, Ronald Gordon Sr. and Edward Gordon Jr; sisters, Ceola Williams and Pauline Davis.

Christine is survived by her beloved life partner, Ronald Mason Sr.; two sons, Taurus Gordon (Kelly) and Ronald Mason Jr; sisters, Louise Taylor (Fred), Elouise Whitty and Queen Alexander (Buster); sister-in-law, Marlene Gordon; grandchildren, Heaven Gordon and Tavarius Gordon; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
