"A Child's Prayer"

Thank you, God, for blessing me with a mother who loved unconditionally. When King Solomon penned Proverbs 31, he must have known my mother, but how could that be? She wasn't even born yet you see. King Solomon being very wise knew this was how God wanted a mother to be. He crafted and designed her especially. He gave her wisdom so she could guide. He gave her patience because he knew she would be tried. He gave her a calm and gentle touch. He made her strong because she needed to be tough. She wasn't afraid to use a switch. If that was what was needed, we got it. She knew what each child needed her to be and quickly adjusted to meet our need. When I was confused and didn't know what to do, she would stand by me. She'd give me clues and paint pictures for me and we'd figure it out together you see. Now, I'm grown Dear Lord. Please help me to be the kind of mother (parent) she was to me. Thank God for blessing me with a mother who loves just like you unconditionally.

To Mom with love, Your children

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card, or sat quietly in a chair. Perhaps you sent a floral spray, if so, we saw it there. Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend would say. Perhaps you were not there at all; just thought of us that day. Whatever you did to console our spirits, we thank you so much from the bottom of our hearts.
