"I'm Free"

Don't grieve for me, for now I am free. I'm following the path God laid for me. I took his hand when I heard him call. I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day to laugh, to love, to work or play. Tasks left undone must stay that way. I found that place at the close of the day. If my parting has left a void, then fill it with remembered joy. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, oh yes, these things, I will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow, I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life has been full; I've savored much, good friends, good times, a loved one's touch. Perhaps my time seemed all too brief; don't lengthen it now with undue grief. God wanted me now, he set me Free.

"Forever In Our Hearts"

Celebrating the Life of Mr. Donald O. McQueen, Jr.

Donald affectionately called “DJ and Dolla” was born on April 18, 1981 in Jacksonville, Florida. He was the only son to Mr. Donald Oliver McQueen and Patricia Ann McQueen-Sealy. Donald attended and graduated from the local schools. He was gainfully employed with the City of Chesapeake in Virginia. Donald will be remembered for his love for family, unfiltered personality and wittiness to steal anyone’s heart.

Donald departed this life peacefully on Saturday, September 23, 2017 in Virginia where he lived with his wife and extended family.

Donald leaves to cherish his memories a loving and dedicated wife, Rosa McQueen; parents, Donald O. McQueen Sr. (Ora Lee), Anthony J. Sealy and Patricia A. McQueen-Sealy; sisters, Kimberly Boatwright and Donishea McQueen; nephews, Darius Simpson (Dia), Kris Boatwright, Ron Boatwright Jr. and Rashaud Boatwright; godmother, Deborah J. Stanley; best friends, Dennis Carmack “Smiley” and cousin, Telisa Robinson; and a host of other relatives and friends.

To Those I Love & Those That Love Me

When I am gone, release me, let me go; I have so many things to see and do; you must not tie yourself to me with tears; be happy that we had so many years; I gave you my love, you can only guess how much you gave me in happiness; I thank you for the love you have shown but now it’s time I traveled on alone.

So grieve a while for me, if grieve you must then let your grief be comforted by trust. It’s only for a while that we must part, so bless the memories within your heart.

I won’t be far away for life goes on so if you need me, call and I will come though you can’t see me or touch me, I’ll be near. And if you listen with your heart, you will hear, all my love around you, loud and clear. And then, when you must come this way alone, I’ll greet you at Heaven’s gate with a smile and a “Welcome Home.”
