In Loving Memory

If tears could build a stairway and memories a lane, I'd walk right up to heaven and bring you home again.
No farewell words were spoken, no time to say goodbye, you were gone before I knew it, and only God knows why.
My heart still aches with sadness and secret tears still flow.
What it meant to say I love you, no one can ever know. But now I know you want me to mourn for you no, no more to remember all the happy times, life still has much in store, since you'll never be forgotten. I pledge to you today, a hallowed place, wishing my heart to where you'll always stay.

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card, or sat quietly in a chair. Perhaps you sent a floral spray, if so, we saw it there. Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend would say. Perhaps you were not there at all; just thought of us that day. Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you very much whatever the part. May God bless each of you.
Special thanks to our nieces, Anethette (Smiley) and Victoria also, my god sister, Mary Allen for the preparation of the fellowship hall. T.S. Warden for all the love he, his brother, mother and our family have always shown each other from childhood. We are Family!

Reflections

the Life of David Jerome Williams, Jr.

On Sunday Morning March 22, 1970 at 9:46am in Jacksonville, Florida, David and Janice Williams welcomed their first born, a son, David Jerome Williams, Jr. It was the greatest joy two parents could have.

On Sunday Morning April 22, 2018 in Jonesboro, Georgia, 48 years and one month, God welcomed David Jr., spirit into his final home, Heaven. David Jr., was doing what he so much loved to do, enjoying his church, New Commandment Christian Church Praise Choir. Although his date of demise is listed on record as April 23, 2018 he became absent from this body and present with the Lord on April 22, 2018 when God stopped his brain from responding to this world. We saw a peace on his face.

While still on this earth David Jr., was known as TOOTIE, TOOKUM, DADA, and DAVE. To know him was to love him. He gave as well as received so much love.

Dave leaves his love to all, father, David J. Williams, Sr.; mother, Janice A. Williams; brother, Darry J; sisters, Davia J (deceased), Daria J, Daona J (Corey); grandmother, Inez T. White; deceased grandparents, William and Annie Tina Williams, Shan Scott and Ben White; so much caring and love for his nieces and nephews, Dave was the number one cheerleader for his nieces, Sesseley (JaDon), Davia, Tamia, Sherri, Cori, Munira and Camryn; nephews, Fatai, Saheed Jr., Corey Jr. and Jeremiah; grandniece, JaNiyah; grandnephew, Khari; brother-in-law, Saheed Sr.; uncles and aunts, Willie J (Geraldine), Spade (Denise), Larry (Donna), Finnie (Danielle), Catherine (Larry), Betty, Virginia, Glenda, Julia and Angela; deceased, William Jr, Milton, Harrison, Daniel (his dad's twin) and Mina; grand uncles and aunts, John, Robert (Lucille), Katie Mae, Irene, Mary Frances, Mary Jane and Frances; god uncle, Ernest Vann, Sr.; god auntie, Mary Allen;

To Those I Love & Those That Love Me

When I am gone, release me, let me go; I have so many things to see and do; you must not tie yourself to me with tears; be happy that we had so many years; I gave you my love, you can only guess how much you gave me in happiness; I thank you for the love you have shown but now it's time I traveled on alone.

So grieve a while for me, if grieve you must, then let your grief be comforted by trust. It's only for a while that we must part, so bless the memories within your heart.

I won't be far away for life goes on so if you need me, call and I will come though you can't see me or touch me, I'll be near. And if you listen with your heart, you will hear, all my love around you, loud and clear. And then,
when you must come this way alone,
I'll greet you at Heaven's gate with a smile and a "Welcome Home."

other mothers, Deanna Bartos (cousin), Hazel Campbell, Retha Smith (cousin), Cynthia Vann, Katie Tremble, Melanie Brereton, Lillie Washington, Vernetta Demery, Delores Foster, Helen Hammond, Jackie Sumlar and Margaret Griggs; numerous 1st cousins; hundreds of 2nd, 3rd and 4th cousins; god sisters, Neshia and Danese; friends in Florida, Tyrone (TS Warden), Daryl (Mone), Ernest Jr (Ernie) and Carl (Carlos); friends in Georgia, Kevin, Brian and Robert; his Rite-Aid Pharmacy family who were also friends, Pat, Shalyn, Missy, Ian, Julie, Andy, Shayla, Preston, Iryna, Mary, Heeja, Asha, Adam, Qutin, Mabeleen and Kwaku Store Manager, and the many customers who loved his kind spirit.

Dave attended Holy Rosary Catholic grade and middle School in Jacksonville, Florida, High School at Bishop Kenny Catholic School and graduated from William M. Raines, Class of 1988. He moved to Savannah, Georgia to attend college, two years later, he became an Army Reservist and served for 8 years. He became an Assistant Store Manager at Pizza Hut in Savannah. At the encouraging of his sisters, he moved to the Atlanta area in 2001, where he became employed by Rite-Aid Pharmacy on May 1, 2007 as a Shift Supervisor. He held that position until his demise. Dave was dedicated to his job. For a period of time he was without a car so he caught two buses and the marta train to get to work, he never asked or wanted help.

Dave's Christian walk, began at an early age where he was baptized at St Pius V. Catholic Church. Later after moving to the Atlanta area he became a member of New Commandment Christian Church, under the leadership of Pastor Gerald Bess (his cousin). Dave was a student of the Word, and loved to praise. His brother moved to the Atlanta area, they were living together. Dave, his brother and sisters had a special love and closeness for each other. They always took good care of one another.

We his parents love the scripture,
3 John verse 4 "I have no greater joy than to hear that my children walk in truth"

THANK YOU DAVID JEROME WILLIAMS, JR.
FOR YOUR UNCONDITIONAL LOVE.
