Dear Brother Your Memory Will Never Fade

My dear brother now that you are gone, you're no longer here to share the bond we had together, a bond of love and care. Yet, somehow something tells me you are watching over me now that from worldly care's you are finally free. I miss you so very much and my tears I cannot hide. Yet, within my heart, I feel you are always by my side. Ever since you went away, life has never been the same. Yet, it comforts me to know that one day we'll meet again.
Love Your Big Sis, Stephanie

Acknowledgement & Appreciate

We the family of the late Sammie Washington III, extend our sincere appreciation and gratitude to our love ones, as well as friends for your many acts of kindness. All of your calls, visits, food, floral arrangements and condolences have served as strength for us. It is our fervent prayer that God's abundant blessings will be forever yours.

Reflection of Life

Sammie Washington III was born to Sammie Washington, Jr. and Sharon Elaine Washington on May 12, 1974, in Saint Augustine, Florida. Sammie relocated to Jacksonville, Florida where he attended schools in the Duval County System until graduating from Florida Community College of Jacksonville, where he received his High School Diploma.

Sammie was baptized at an early age under the leadership of Dr. William Lavant, Pastor of Bethel Missionary Baptist Church Sweetwater. He later rededicated his life to Christ in 1998 and became a member of Zarephath Tabernacle, under the leadership of Apostle James Brant. He was employed with Tiresoles of Jacksonville until his illness caused him to resign in April of 2017.

Sammie passed away on February 20, 2018. He was preceded in death by his father, Sammie Washington, Jr.

Sammie leaves to cherish memories: his mother and stepfather, Sharon E. Dicks (Alonza); two children, Kahali S. Washington and Satajah A. Washington; four sisters, Stephanie L. Dean (Scott), Jerri Plummer, Twanya Dicks and Audrea Q. Dicks (Terrence); aunts and uncles, Vivian Powell (Cleveland), Harold Strawter (Brenda), Carolyn Miller (John), Marilyn Benitez, Richard Strawter (Rhonda), Jerry Strawter, Gloria Jean Hill, Phyllis Bush (Marvin) and Donald Washington; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, special and devoted girlfriend, Felicia Shider; close childhood friends, Arthur Mealer III, Rudy Mealer, Bruce Jefferson and Jeremy Tinsley.
