In Appreciation

Perhaps you sent a lovely card, or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral spray, if so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all; just thought of us that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you so much whatever the part.

Obituary

Jim Leroy Moore, Sr. affectionately known as “No Limits” was born on February 1, 1966 to Joe Byne and Linda Moore. He was the oldest of three children. Jim received his education at Deerfield Beach High School in Deerfield, Florida. After completing high school, Jim moved to his final resting place in Jacksonville, Florida. At a young age, Jim accepted Christ and was added to the Body of Christ. He later met and married Patricia Ann Franklin.

After finding a passion in cooking, Jim began a career as a chef at various restaurants in Jacksonville, Florida. He was gainfully employed at Morrison Cafeteria, Country Cabin, Tony Ramos, and Copeland’s to name a few. Jim later had a desire for more and hung up his chef hat. His desire led him to becoming an entrepreneur and he opened his own lawn service called, “No Limit Lawn Care”.

Even though he hung up his chef hat, he continued cooking and showering his community with his famous dishes. His community loved when he made his famous conch salad and curry chicken. Not only could his community get a great dish they also knew that many jokes and laughter would follow. All that grew close to Jim knew, “that if he could, then he would,” help by any means necessary. Jim was and will continue to be known as a free-spirited, giving, and caring person.

Jim was called home on, Monday, May 21, 2018. He was preceded in death by both grandparents; two uncles; and one aunt.

Loving Memories

Jim’s legacy will continue to reside in the hearts of those who he leaves behind. Those fond memories will be with his dearest wife, Patricia Moore; four sons, Garrett, Jim Jr., Fred and Jameel; four precious grandchildren; a loving mother, Linda Collier-Wade; younger siblings, Jeffrey (Sashia) Harris, Jack Collier III and Ashley Williams; aunts and uncles, Mary James, Carolyn (Richard) McNeil, Lillian Scott, Lisa Moore, Harold (Gloria) Moore, Warren (Amy) Moore, Robert Moore and Benjamin Nicholas; great aunt, Deloris Rosier; mother-in-law, Ethel Lou Franklin; brother-in-law’s, Myron (Liz), Gregory (Pat), Terry, Reginald and Lamar; sister-in-law’s, Jacqaline, Cynthia (Donald), Rashell, Juanita (Kareem) and Karen; special cousins, Ernest Johnson and Fred Mathis; a devoted and caring best friend, Robert Foster; a god-brother, Antonio Lindsey; good friends, Solomon, Monk and Michael; and a host of loving nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and many sorrowing friends.

“When Tomorrow Starts Without Me”

When tomorrow starts without me, and I am not here to see, if the sun should rise and find your eyes all filled with tears for me; I wish you wouldn't cry the way you did today, while thinking of the many things, we did not get to say. I know how much you love me, as much as I love you, each time that you think of me, I know you will miss me too. When tomorrow starts with out me please try to understand that an angel came and called my name and took me by the hand; the angel said my place was ready in heaven far above, and that I would have to leave behind all those I dearly love; but when I walked through Heaven’s Gates, I felt so much at home when GOD looked down and smiled at me from his golden throne. He said, this is eternity and all I promised you today for life on earth is done but here it starts a new, I promise no tomorrow for today will always last and since each day’s the exact same way there is no longing for the past. So, when tomorrow starts without me do not think we’re apart, for every time you think of me remember I’m right here in your heart.
