“Don’t”

Don't spend too much time mourning, tears are for the sad. I left to be with Jesus and that should make you glad. Don't waste your hours in grieving, no need to feel distressed, I am tired of life's frustration so I had to get some rest Don't vex yourself with questions or try to reason why, Life here for me has ended, it came my time to die. Don't lose the love I gave you, nurture it with care, Grow it with devotion and spread it everywhere. Don't fret because my leaving came in such way, We'll have another meeting, on God's Eternal Day.

Obituary

Alvin Lamar Taft was born on March 4, 1956 in Jacksonville, Florida. Alvin received his early education in the Duval County Public School system. He was employed by the UF Health System in the transportation department as a carrier. Alvin received Jesus Christ as his savior at an early age and joined Emanuel Missionary Baptist Church.

Alvin leaves to cherish his precious memories, Children: Dealonzo and Deangelo; Grandchildren: Dealonzo Alvin, Brianna Skye; Four sisters: Barbara Anne, Deborah (Theodore), Janet (Michael), Brenda (Stevie), One Brother: Donald; Two Aunts: Virginia and Martha; One Uncle: James; Special friends: Donna Goodson, Eddie "LaLa" Monroe and a number of nieces, nephews, and cousins.

God, in His infinite wisdom called Alvin home on May 23, 2018 to his eternal rest, surrounded by his loving family. Alvin was preceded in death by his mother, Barbara Taft Beverly and his grandparents, James and Charlie Mae Taft.

A special thanks to the Community Hospice and Palliative Care Staff and the (VPA) Visiting Physicians Association.
