

A Letter To My Mommy

I never thought you would be called home this soon God gained an Angel on the 17th of June. You fought a good fight until the end, with Christ in your heart you would always win. You were the strongest woman I Knew, my sistas and I got our strength from you. I wasn't ready for you to go, but you were tired and weary this I know. Don't worry about your daughters, we will be fine. You will forever be in our hearts and on our minds. You were the greatest mother and friend, My Love for you will never end. I know again I will see your face, so see you later until that day.

~Until we meet again, Punkin

"Mommy"

God saw you getting weary, so He did what he knew best, He came and stood beside you and whispered, "Come and Rest". When God called you to come and rest, you didn't go alone, for part of us went with you, the day God took you home.
