Scriptural Thoughts

“Precious in the eyes of Jehovah is the death of his loyal ones” – Psalm 116:15

“Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out.” – John 5: 28,29

Wallace’s Favorite

“People in the world think that Jehovah’s Witnesses are all squares. We may be squares now, but we’ll be A-round later!”

Obituary

Wallace Chandler was born August 15, 1939 in Odum, Georgia to the late parents, Malachi and Doretha Chandler. He fell asleep in death on September 11, 2018.

He attended public school at Waycross Center High, class of 1956.

Wallace was baptized on August 12, 1953 as one of Jehovah’s Witnesses while attending the Waycross Congregation.

Wallace was known for his deep love for Jehovah and the ministry. He devoted his life to his family and helping others learn about God’s kingdom with the hope it has for mankind. He was very outgoing and loved by many.

He was preceded in death by one sister: Dora Hayes; three brothers: Hezekiah, Elaine (E.L.), and Daniel.

He was married to Mona “Martha” Chandler for 53 years and had 5 children: Tammie, Phyllis, Vincent, Steven, and Adrian. One of his proudest accomplishments was teaching his children bible truths about Jehovah God and experiencing all his children dedicate their lives to Jehovah.

At the time of his death, he was married to Jacquelyn Chandler and lived in Jacksonville, FL. where they enjoyed serving Jehovah together.

His surviving family includes his wife: Jacquelyn Chandler; two daughters: Tammie (Jimmie) Thomas of Waycross, GA; Phyllis (Herbert) Smith of Waycross, GA; three sons: Vincent Chandler Sr., Sanford, FL; Steven (Tangela) Chandler, Orlando, FL; Adrian Chandler, Jacksonville, FL; three stepsons: Arnett Rogers, Michael Marshall and Kevin Harris; fifteen grandchildren: Jazzmen Thomas, Diana Chandler (Oates), Demond Smith, Montaleatha Thomas, Vincent Chandler Jr., Dexter Smith, Sterling Chandler, Apprecia Chandler (Thomas), Shirece Chandler, Adrianna Chandler (Rivers), Deon Smith, Asia Chandler, Amari Chandler; four great-grandchildren Kiana Oates, Jamari Thomas, Journey Thomas, and Elijah Chandler.

“He Will Call” – Song 151
(Job 14: 13-15)

Life, like a mist, appears for just a day, then disappears tomorrow.
All that we are can quickly fade away, replaced with tears and sorrow.
If a man should die, can he live again? Hear the promise God has made:

Friends of our God, though they may pass away, will never be forsaken.
All those asleep who in God’s mem’ry stay, from death he will awaken.
Then we’ll come to see all that life can be: Paradise eternally.

(Chorus)

He will call; The dead will answer. They will live at his command.
For he will have a longing for the work of his own hand.
So have faith, and do not wonder, for our God can make us stand.
And we will live forever, as the work of his own hand.
