23rd Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures, he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul; he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou prepares a table before me in the presence of mine enemies, thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever. Amen

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card, or sat quietly in a chair. Perhaps you sent a floral spray, if so, we saw it there. Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend would say. Perhaps you were not there at all; just thought of us that day. Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you very much whatever the part, may God bless you.

Celebrating The Life of Robert Lee Williams

Robert was born on August 23, 1942 to Benjamin Williams and Mary E. Williams in Jacksonville, Florida. He confessed Christ at an early age and was baptized. He attended the local schools in Duval County, graduating from Matthew W. Gilbert, Class of 1961; he also attended Edward Waters College. He has five sons and one daughter.

Robert departed this life on Thursday, November 1, 2018. He was preceded in death by his parents, Benjamin Williams and Mary E. Williams.

Robert leaves to cherish his memories: a daughter, Jacqueline Wilson; sons, Robert Williams, Jr., Michael Williams (Nubko), Maurice Williams (Shirley), Ersell Williams, Rodney Williams and Carlos Taylor (Hope); sixteen grandchildren; great-grandchildren; brother, Emmett Williams; other relatives and friends.

Those We Love Remain With Us

Those we love remain with us for love itself lives on, and cherished memories never fade because a loved one's gone. Those we love can never be more than a thought apart, far as long as there is memory, they'll live on in the heart.
