“I’ve found My Way”

In this life, I’ve found my way, to be free and happy, counting my blessings each day. I’ve followed life’s dreams, I’ve reached for the sky, but you never saw a tear, fall from my eye. So family and friends, as I join this new life, weep not for me, I’ve found my way. Love all of you, Mary

Mary leaves to cherish her memories, her daughter, Carolyn Ann Walker (Samuel); two grandsons, Gentry Y. A very special friend, Mrs. Dannette McQueen.

Dearest Mother,

The time has come for you to journey home. It feels unreal and sad, but I know you are not alone. It hurts me to see you go, but it's God's will. You weren't afraid or even sad to go, for you knew where you were going to live. We all must do as you, and journey that way. I hope I have your courage come that day. Mom, I know you live with the Lord above, just know you will always have my love. Forever yours.

Your daughter, Ann
