In Appreciation

The family would like to acknowledge all acts of kindness during this period of bereavement. We are assured that God sent you into our lives for moments such as these. Words alone cannot express how your visits, telephone calls, food, flowers, cards and most of all your prayers and inspirational messages have comforted us. We would like to extend a special heartfelt thanks to our family members and friends. We love everyone for whatever part you played. May God continue to bless and keep you!
