I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I am free. I'm following the path God laid for me. I took his hand when I heard him call. I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day to laugh, to love, to work or play. Tasks left undone must stay that way. I found that place at the close of the day. If my parting has left a void, then fill it with remembered joy. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, oh yes, these things, I will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow, I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life has been full, I've savored much, good friends, good times, a loved one's touch. Perhaps my time seemed all too brief, don't lengthen it now with undue grief. God wanted me now, he set me Free.

Acknowledgement

The family of the late Leonard Roberts wishes to acknowledge with heartfelt appreciation your kind expression of sympathy. There are no words that seem adequate enough to say thank you to everyone who expressed their sympathy during the loss of our beloved brother. He was a wonderful person and through the memories that he gave each of us, he will live on forever in our hearts.

Obituary

Leonard Alvin Roberts was born on July 27, 1958 at St. Luke's Hospital in Jacksonville, Florida. He was the second child of Wil Roberts and Vera Sykes and the younger brother of Bennie Roberts.

Leonard attended Pine Castle's Vocational Training School. He was well known in his community for many years and loved by everyone.

Leonard was preceded in death by his father, Wil Roberts. On Monday, May 11, 2015, God sent his heavenly angels to carry his child safely home to behold him forever more. Thank you Jesus, he's finally at peace. No more pain or suffering; all his worries are now over. He found sweet, sweet rest at last!

Leonard leaves to cherish his memories, his loving mother, Vera Sykes; siblings, Bennie Roberts, Stephanie Cobb (Jeffrey), Kimberly Dixon, Jessica Sykes; niece and nephews; Renee Walker, Rashard Walker, Renaldo Walker, Jeremiah Cabral, Jackson Cabral; great niece and great nephews: Rey'Onna Bryant, Daniel Walker, Mccai Walker, Deshaun Walker; and a host of other relatives and sorrowing friends.
