Obituary

Khameyea Dai'zha LaVonne Jennings was born in Decatur, Georgia on October 29, 1996 to Laquandra Jennings and Augustus Evans. She was a devoted member of Philipian Community Church. Khameyea graduated from Frank H. Peterson Academies of Technology in December 2014 with her cosmetology license. She had dreams to add a culinary degree to her achievements.

Khameyea was a perfectionist in everything she did, she was loving, loyal, hot tempered, bossy, blunt and was well known for her fashion, she loved to dress. She had a strong love for children. Khameyea had the strength and determination to where she could do anything she put her mind to. "Her beauty was only out-matched by her smart mouth".

Khameyea was preceded in death by her grandmother, Margaret Boston; great great great grandmother, Bessie Townsend; uncle, Odell Townsend and cousin, J.T. Townsend.

Khameyea will be truly missed by her mother, Laquandra Jennings; father, Augustus Evans; grandfather, Milton Boston; grandmother, Arnedra Evans of Atlanta, Georgia; sisters, Mikhaela Jennings, Cynthia Evans and Armani Brown; cousin, Breon Boston; special friend, Avery Thornton; godson, Elijah Wyche and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, Atlanta relatives, other relatives, and dear friends.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.

I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day, to laugh, to love, to work, to play.

Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the end of the day.
If my parting has left a void, Then fill it with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, Ah yes, these things too I will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My Life's been full,
I savored much, good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief, don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me FREE.

Forever In Our Hearts
