Obituary
“The Time Of My Life”

I’m having the time of my life right now, the battle has been won; My faith was strong and my conscious clear, for I had only just begun. Now I know the peace that was promised, It is the joy of a job well done.

Jake McCants, Jr. was born on November 16, 1933 to the late Jake McCants, Sr. and Louise Frazier in Arcadia, South Carolina. He graduated from Howard High School where he served as photo editor of the yearbook and sang in the Glee Club. He also attended Walker Business College. Jake departed this life on Thursday, June 25, 2015.

Jake leaves to cherish his memories his children, Sabrina McCants, Jake McCants, III (Monica), Clay McCants (Shirley), Armel McCants (Gloria); sisters, Pauline Grate, Dorothy Beale, Shirley McCants; brother, Clayden McCants; twelve grandchildren, Jacobia, Jabari, Jonathon, Aleshia, Jake IV, Brandon, Demetrius, Clay Jr., Cladesha, Armel Jr., Antoine and Cornelia; nine great-grandchildren; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and sorrowing friends.

“Our Family Prayer”

Most Gracious and eternal Father, Lord give us strength and inner peace. Help us to be faithful to you and each other. We know all things work together for the good of those who love you and are called according to your purpose. Lord, lift our heavy burdens for you are God and you maketh no mistakes. We have lost a loved one so precious and now he is with you. He is one that we needed, a daddy that we loved. Though we do believe we need you Lord to hold us up, help us to be strong. Master, give us hope for our tomorrows. Give us a word of consolation and reassurance. Forever bind us together for unity always brings strength. In the name of Jesus, bind the works of the enemy that will try to bring division. You alone have pulled us through before, do it for us again, Lord. Hold us up as one forever more.
AMEN
