“When God Called You Home”

Mom when God called you home the Heavenly gates were opened wide, and your spirit, graceful like a dove, flew home to be by the Master's side. I cried like a baby, and everyone tried to comfort me, but my heart was broken so bad inside, all I could feel was a sad cold breeze. I looked back in time through a blurred vision of tears to what seemed like a few moments in life, but yet they are counted as years. It wasn't enough time for me, but I know that God knows what's best. He sent a host of Heavenly angels, and took you home where, now, your soul rest.

“Family Chain”

We little knew that day, God was going to call you home; in life we loved you dearly, in death we do the same. It broke our hearts to lose you; you did not go alone; for part of us went with you, the day God called you home. You left us beautiful memories. Your love is still our guide; and though we cannot see you, you are always by our side. Our family chain is broken, and nothing seems the same; but as God calls us one by one, the chain will link again.
