I'm Home

The time has come to say goodbye. I know you will have faith and don't ask God why. I know in my heart that you are not alone because I went home and I'm not gone. God has a number which is seven and I want my sisters and brothers to know that I went to Heaven. God wanted me to tell you that His faith is wise and that I will always love and miss you guys. If you look up and don't see me, just know that I went home and my spirit is free.

Life Reflections

I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.

II Timothy 4:7-8

Evangelist Mamie Lee Gibbons, was born in Louisville, Georgia on March 26, 1940 to the late Ramsey and Susie Atkins Gibbons. Mamie was the first child along with her twin brother, Joe Lewis Gibbons. Several years later the family moved to Jacksonville, Florida and Mamie attended the Duval County Schools, graduating from Northwestern High School. Mamie accepted the Lord Jesus Christ into her life as a young girl and later became an Evangelist and also was the Pastor of Gospel Fellowship in the 1980's.

Mamie was a member of Apostolic Church of God in Christ, she was truly a warrior in God's army. She was a very strong and determined woman of God, she never was moved by what she saw, she believed to the end and kept the faith.

Mamie departed this life on Thursday, August 13, 2015 and she was preceded in death by her parents, Ramsey and Susie Atkins Gibbons; brothers, Joe Lewis Gibbons and Samuel W. Gibbons.

Mamie leave to cherish her memories her brothers, Ramsey (Sharon) Gibbons, Eddie (Dawn) Gibbons, Allen L. Gibbons, Jacob (Michelle) Gibbons, Ray J. (Sherry) Gibbons, Isaiah J. Gibbons; sisters, Mary L. Gibbons, Rachel Harper, Easter Adams and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.
