"I'm Free"

Don't grieve for me, for now I am free. I'm following the path God has chosen for me. I took His hand when I heard him call. I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day to laugh, to love, to work or play. Tasks left undone must stay that way. I've now found peace at the end of the day. If my parting has left a void, then fill it with remembered joys. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, oh yes, these things, I too will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow, look for the sunshine of tomorrow. My life has been full, I've savored much, good friends, good times, a loved one's touch. Perhaps my time seemed all too brief, don't lengthen your pain with undue grief. Lift up your heart and peace to thee, God wanted me now, He set me Free.

Words of Thanks

The family of the late Rosalee West wishes to take the opportunity to extend a special thank you, to each of you for every act of kindness and love you have illustrated to us throughout this triumphant week of sorrow and joy.

Reflections

Rosalee West was born on January 6, 1953 in Jacksonville, Florida; she was the oldest daughter of the late Russell Tooley and Emma J. Richardson-Smith.

Rosalee attended the public schools in Duval County, graduating from William M. Raines High School. She was employed at Jacksonville's famous Cotten's Barbeque where she worked there for ten years. While serving as a waitress at Cotten's Barbeque, she also worked as a transportation driver for CSX. Shortly thereafter, Rosalee opened her own family home daycare business in 1999 until 2006. She touched many children lives and will always be remembered for her caring spirit, nurturing touch and passion for life.

Rosalee departed this life into eternal peace on Thursday, October 22, 2015. She was preceded in death by her parents.

Rosalee leaves to cherish her memories, four loving children, Latasha S. West, Shershack Hall, Jr., Thomas H. Carter II, and Akeeva J. West, all of Jacksonville Florida; siblings, Lonnie Richardson of Jacksonville Florida, John H. Hill of Wilmington, Delaware, Louise Jefferson of Wilmington, Delaware, Equilla Smith of Wilmington Delaware, Cheryl Henry-White of Daytona Florida, and Brenda Thaxton (Gerald) of Jacksonville Florida; grandchildren, Thomas H. Carter III, Thomarys Carter, Tmyrah Carter, Jordan Carter all of Gainesville Florida; longtime and devoted friend, Shershack D. Hall, Sr. of Jacksonville Florida, a host of nephews, nieces, cousins, and friends.
