“I’m Free”

Don't grieve for me, for now I am free. I'm following the path God laid for me. I took his hand when I heard him call. I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day to laugh, to love, to work or play. Tasks left undone must stay that way. I found that place at the close of the day. If my parting has left a void, then fill it with remembered joy. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, oh yes, these things, I will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow, I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life has been full, I've savored much, good friends, good times, a loved one's touch. Perhaps my time seemed all too brief, don't lengthen it now with undue grief. God wanted me now, he set me Free.

Obituary

Mr. Foster Gordon, Jr. was born in Folkston, Georgia to the late Foster Gordon, Sr. and Flossie Gordon on October 20, 1928. He attended the local schools in Camden County. Foster confessed Christ at an early age and was a member of the Church of Christ. Foster was a Longshoreman and he was married to the late Jannie Gordon.

Foster departed this life on Friday, October 23, 2015. He was preceded in death by his parents, Foster and Flossie Gordon, Sr.; wife, Jannie Gordon; one brother, and two sisters.

Foster leaves to cherish his memories James Gordon (Linda), Lillie Mae Alexander (Willie Lee), Florrie Lee, Helen Crawford, John Tillman (Mildred), Benjamin Tillman (Mary), and many other relatives.

Farewell My friends

It was beautiful as long as it lasted, the journey of my life. I have no regrets whatsoever, save the pain I'll leave behind. Those dear hearts who love and care, and the strings pulling at the heart and soul. The strong arms that held me up, when my own strength let me down. At every turning of my life, I came across good friends, friends who stood by me, even when the time raced me by. Farewell, farewell, my friends, I smile and bid you goodbye. Shed no tears for I need them not, all I need is your smile. If you feel sad do think of me, for that's what I'll like when you live in the hearts of those you love, remember then you never die.
