

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I am free. I'm following the path God laid for me. I took his hand when I heard him call. I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day to laugh, to love, to work or play. Tasks left undone must stay that way, I found that place at the close of the day. If my parting has left a void, then fill it with remembered joy. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, oh yes, these things, I will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow, I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life has been full, I've savored much, good friends, good times, a loved one's touch. Perhaps my time seemed all too brief, don't lengthen it now with undue grief. God wanted me now, he set me Free.

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card, or sat quietly in a chair. Perhaps you sent a floral spray, if so, we saw it there. Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend would say. Perhaps you were not there at all; just thought of us that day. Whatever you did to console our hearts, We thank you very much whatever the part. May God bless each of you.

Obituary

Ms. Cheryl Mylinda Parker was born on September 22, 1960 in Buffalo, New York to Jimmy Turpin and Jessie Mae Miles. She moved to Jacksonville, Florida at an early age and attended the Public Schools of Duval County.

Cheryl was employed at Arlington Childcare as a Dietician. She was a volunteer at Justina Road Elementary School, and a Teacher at The Sanctuary @ Mt. Calvary Summer Camp. A very pleasant person with a lovely smile.

Cheryl departed this life on Thursday, November 5, 2015, and is now enjoying a long awaited rest in her new home not made by man's hand, but eternal in the hands of her heavenly father. She was preceded in death by her mother, Jessie Mae Miles; and sister, Theresa Ann Everett.

Cheryl leaves to cherish her loving memories her father, Jimmy Turpin; a loving daughter, Felisha Davis (Mateen); sons, Isiah Parker, and Derrick Parker; granddaughter, Aziyah Davis; grandsons, Albert Fahnbulleh, III, Amari Fahnbulleh, and Derrion Parker; sister, Brenda Filmore; brothers, Ricky Parker (Gina), and Antonio Schofield (Judy); special friends, Robert Stevens, and Cynthia Whigham; a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews, other relatives, and friends.
