Miss Me-But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me, I want no rites in a gloom-filled room, why cry for a soul set free? Miss me a little, but not for long! And not with your heads bowed low. Remember the love that we once shared, miss me, but let me go. For this journey that we all must take; and each must go alone; It's all part of the Master's plan a step on the road to home. When you are lonely and sick at heart, go to the hill we know, and bury your sorrows among the trees. Miss me, but let me go.

Acknowledgements

Words cannot express our sincere gratitude for the many acts of kindness that have been shown to our family during the illness and passing of our loved one. Your prayers, visits, phone calls, and other warm expressions are very much appreciated. Your support during these very difficult times has helped to lift our spirits and will always be remembered. May God bless each of you.
