A Better Life Ahead

I've gone away for a little while, do not grieve my soul. For God has promised a resurrection, to everyone young and old. I became a little weary, so God laid me down to rest. For in our final hour we know God will judge us fair, so there is no need to worry God knows how much I cared. For in my lifetime I was blessed, God had not left my side I have family and friends who really care, and I always thanked him before I died. So keep your faith and He'll see you through, let Him carry your load, for the journey was long but I'm headed straight for the cramped and narrow road.

Acknowledgement

The family wishes to acknowledge and extend words of sincere appreciation to each of you for every expression of sympathy shown during our hour of bereavement. The prayers, food, cards, flowers, and other acts of kindness proved to be a source of strength in our darkest hour. May God bless each of you.
