~A Fallen Limb~

A limb has fallen from the family tree. I keep hearing a voice that says "Grieve Not For Me". Remember the best times, the laughter, and the song. The good life I lived while I was strong. Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you. Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through. My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest. Remembering all, how I truly was blessed. Continue traditions, no matter how small. Go on with your life, don't worry about falls. I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin. Until the day comes we're together again.

Acknowledgement

The family of the late Erma Jean Thompson would like to express our sincere appreciation and gratitude for your many acts of kindness during the loss of our loved one. May God continue to bless each and every one of you.

Obituary

Mrs. Erma Jean Thompson was born on November 15, 1942 in Jacksonville, Florida to the late Samuel Charles Thompson and Katie Lee Thompson. She was the fourth of six children born into this union. Erma attended the local elementary and junior high schools here in Jacksonville, and Howard Academy of Monticello, Florida for her tenth and eleventh grades; then graduating from New Stanton Senior High School in 1960. After graduating from high school, she attended Edward Waters College. She continued her education at Florida Junior College where she received an Associate's Degree of Nursing in 1989.

Erma accepted Christ as her personal savior and was baptized at an early age. For most of her life she was a member of First Baptist of Oakland. She joined Faith Christian Center (Impact Church) where she served diligently in the church bookstore. Erma was employed by Jacksonville Nursing and Rehabilitation Center as the Assistant Director of Nursing.

Erma was a loving wife, mother, and grandmother. She departed this life on Wednesday, January 6, 2016. She was preceded in death by her parents; brother, Samuel Charles, Jr.; sisters, Mattie Cochran and Patricia Graham.

A Mother's Love

There is no other love like a Mother's love.....

A Mother's love: Is a sanctuary, where our souls can find sweet rest from the struggle and tension of life's fast and futile questions.

A Mother's love: Is like a tower, rising far above the crowd and her smile is like the sunshine, breaking through a threatening cloud.

A Mother's love: Is like a beacon, burning bright with faith and prayer and through the changing scenes of life we can find a haven there.

A Mother's love: Is fashioned after God's enduring love, it is endless and unfailing, like the love of Him above.

For God knew in His great wisdom that He couldn't be everywhere, so He put His little children in a loving mother's care. Lord we thank you for the world's greatest mother you gave us.

We will love you always.

Your Children!
