“When I Come To Heaven”

When I come to heaven how joyful it will be! For on that day, at last, my risen Lord I'll see. No greater happiness than to see Him face to face, to see the love in His eyes and feel His warm embrace. I've done nothing to deserve that perfect home above, It was given freely through the grace of Jesus' love. Then, why should earthly cares weigh down upon me so? They'll be a distant memory when home at last I go.

Acknowledgement

We are extremely grateful for the many comforting expressions of love and concern shown during our time of bereavement. In times of sorrow and despair it is truly a blessing to have the prayers and consolation of friends. May God richly bless each of you.

Obituary

Mr. Nathaniel Wesley, Sr. was born on October 26, 1919 to the late George Wesley and Elsie Wesley in Jacksonville, Florida. Nathaniel was drafted in the army one week after his marriage to Victoria Rogers. He served his country from 1942 to 1945 as a Meddac. In this union they had three children, Nathaniel Wesley, Jr., Gloria Y. Wesley, and Elsie Wesley (preceded him in death).

Nathaniel returned from the army and started a career with the City of Jacksonville, and while working he continued his education graduating from Stanton Adult High School in December of 1952. Nathaniel accepted a second job with the Federal Government, he was truly a man who ensured that his family was very well provided for. He later retired from both jobs. Nathaniel was a member of Saint Stephen A.M.E. Church for many years.

Nathaniel later met Mozella Crowder (preceded him in death) and her five children, Rallin, Emmett, Gerald, (all preceded him in death), Wilmer Hicks his private cook and taxi service, and Brenda (Julius) Henderson, they united in marriage and to this union three sons, George, Bernard, and Joseph; four daughters, Annette (Edward) Brackett, Linda (Tyrone) Bussey, Joann, and Patricia.

Nathaniel attended Mary Singleton Center for his recreation time and volunteered for many years calling BINGO and later changed his attendance to the Lincoln Villa Center where he was known for his style of dress. He met many people along with his special friend, Mildred Mitchell.

Nathaniel has fourteen grandchildren and twenty three great-grandchildren.
