Obituary

Darin Wilcox a.k.a “Eyez” was born on September 29, 1973 in Boynton Beach, Florida at the Bethesda Hospital. When Darin was a teenager his family moved to Jacksonville, Florida, where he attended Arlington Junior High School and graduated from the Job Corp. Darin gained work skills that allowed him to travel, his last move was to Tennessee where his son, Julian Wilcox was born. He remained in Tennessee until his death.

Darin leaves to mourn his passing a loving mother, Lizzie Wilcox McIntosh; brother, Lamont Taylor; sister, Katrina Wilcox Dixon; he also leave behind Dominique Thomas (the one he called his own); nephews, Demonte Taylor, Jonathan Taylor, and Cornell Webb, Jr.; nieces, LaShandra Taylor and Kyra Webb; and a host of uncles, aunts, cousins, other relatives, and friends.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I am free. I'm following the path God has chosen for me. I took His hand when I heard him call.
I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day to laugh, to love, to work or play. Tasks left undone must stay that way. I've now found peace at the end of the day.

If my parting has left a void, then fill it with remembered joys. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, oh yes, these things, I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow;
look for the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life has been full; I've savored much, good friends, good times, a loved one's touch. Perhaps my time seemed all too brief; don't lengthen your pain with undue grief. Lift up your heart and peace to thee, God wanted me now,
He set me Free.

Just One Day

If I could come back for just one day I know exactly what I would say to my family and friends, and those who I loved as a message from God who speaks from above. I would say it's okay to be sad for a while, but what I really want most is to see your smile, and for you to go on and live once again, allowing the Lord to comfort your pain.

I know that you loved me with all of your heart, and that none of you wanted for me to depart. I don't quite understand it myself, but I know you'll get by with a little help. Yes, I would say to be sad for a day and to do what you need to do; and then lift up your eyes to the wonder of the sky and know that I loved you too.
