23rd Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures, he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul; he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou prepares a table before me in the presence of mine enemies, thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever. Amen!

Obituary

Rosalie V. Jackson Holt was born on March 21, 1954 to the loving union of Curtis H. Jackson and Nokomis Swann-Jackson. A local native of Jacksonville, Florida she received her early education in the local public schools of Duval County. She then went on to successfully further her education at Edward Waters College. Rosalie relocated to Bay City, Texas, where she met and married the love of her life Mr. Irving Holt. She received Jesus Christ as her Savior and King and was a member of Mother Zion Baptist Church of Bay City, Texas, under the leadership of Pastor Murray G. Martin. Rosalie lived sixty-three wonderful years surrounded by family members and friends.

Rosalie transitioned peacefully from this life on Monday, June 06, 2016. God called and she did as a faithful good servant, answered. He sent His heavenly chariots down to escort her into His presence.

Rosalie was preceded in death by her mother and father, Curtis H. Jackson and Nokomis Swann-Jackson; two loving sisters, Linda Jackson and Rose J. Reddick; nephew, Raymond L. Reddick.

Rosalie leaves to cherish her beautiful memories a devoted husband of thirty-three years, Irving Holt; sons, Jermaine B. Jackson (Carrie) and Ja'nelle A. Walton; five sisters, Lagretta Watkin, Charlotte Coleman, Curline Darden (Paul), LueAnn Robinson, and Yvonne Jackson better known as the "The Jackson Girls"; one beautiful granddaughter, Isbella Jackson; a host of aunts, nieces, nephews, cousins, and many special sorrowing friends.

"When Tomorrow Starts Without Me"

When tomorrow starts without me, and I am not there to see, if the sun should rise and find your eyes all filled with tears for me; I wish so much you wouldn't cry the way you did today, while thinking of the many things, we didn't get to say. I know how much you love me, as much as I love you, and each time that you think of me, I know you will miss me too; but when tomorrow starts without me, please try to understand, that an angel came and called my name, and took me by the hand, and said my place was ready, in heaven far above, and that I'd have to leave behind all those I dearly love. But as I turned to walk away, a tear fell from my eye for all my life, I'd always thought, I didn't want to die. I had so much to live for, so much left yet to do, it almost seemed impossible that I was leaving you. I thought of all the yesterdays, the good ones and the bad, I thought of all the love we shared, and all the fun we had.

If I could relive yesterday, just even for a while, I'd say good-bye and kiss you and maybe see you smile. But then I fully realized, that this could never be, for emptiness and memories, would take the place of me. And when I thought of worldly things, I might miss come tomorrow, I thought of you, and when I did, my heart was filled with sorrow. But when I walked through heaven's gates, I felt so much at home. When God looked down and smiled at me, from His great golden throne, he said, this is eternity, and all I have promised you. Today your life on earth is past, but her life starts anew. I promise no tomorrow, but today will always last, and since each day's the same way there's no longing for the past. You have been so faithful, so trusting and so true. Though there were times you did some things. You knew you shouldn't do. But you have been forgiven and now at last you're free. So won't you come and take my hand and share my life with me?" So when tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart, for every time you think of me, I'm right here, in your heart.
