Miss Me-But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me, I want no rites in a gloom-filled room, why cry for a soul set free? Miss me a little- but not for long! And not with your heads bowed low. Remember the love that we once shared, miss me, but let me go. For this journey that we all must take; and each must go alone; It's all part of the Master's plan a step on the road to home. When you are lonely and sick at heart, go to the hill we know and bury your sorrows among the trees. Miss me, but let me go.

Mildred R. Kitt was born on February 18, 1936 in Jacksonville, Florida to the late Frank and Josephine Lee.

Mildred graduated from New Stanton High School, Class of 1955. She earned a certification and later became a Certified Nursing Assistant, working at Memorial Hospital for a number of years. Later, she worked at Busch Canning Metal Container Company as a cook/cashier before retirement.

Mildred was married to Nathaniel Reynolds who preceded her in death. As a result of their love and union, the Lord blessed them with 3 children. She later married Ervin Kitt who also preceded her in death.

Mildred was a faithful member of The Heir Church where she served as a greeter, choir member, and active member of the Women of Faith and Power Women Ministries. She was also a graduate of the Heir Ministry and Heir-U-Cation Department.

Mildred had such a wonderful personality and a love for people. She loved her family, her children, her Pastor, and her Church family. She was such a diva and classy lady, always dressing to a tee. Her beauty lit up the room.
