Acknowledgements

A heartfelt and sincere thank you to Harts Harbor Healthcare Center, for the love and benevolent care bestowed upon my Godmother while a resident for 13 years. Initially, Sandy and I were both concerned as to how she would cope with living in a Nursing Care Facility, after being such an independent woman. However, illness interceded and decisions of such magnitude became necessary. She soon settled, and made her request "known," to the staff. Profound gratitude to Dr. Vorbes Aleger, and Nurse Practitioner Desiree Touvoli. A heartfelt "Thank You" to the entire nursing staff of the North Wing Unit. I acknowledge Every Nurse, Patient Care Associate, and employee who assisted in Sandy's daily care. Lastly, great appreciation to the medical staff of Heartland Hospice and Nurse Tinesha Scott. Through this journey lifelong friendships have been formed. God Bless Each of Your Lives!

Respectfully,
Victoria (Vikki) Pickford

Celebrating the Life of Sandra W. Parker

Sandra Wyche Parker was born on January 11, 1941 in Barnwell, South Carolina to the late Carietha Faust. She was reared in Jacksonville, Florida and received her education in the Duval County Public Schools, graduating in 1958, from Matthew W. Gilbert High School. Sandy enlisted and served four years in the United States Army. She continued her career with CSX Railroad for nearly 30 years of service, until her health began to decline.

Sandy later met and married LeRon Parker. Sandy loved being a member of St. Thomas Missionary Baptist Church, where she was a member of District 16 and her leader was Deacon Joseph Evans; she also attended midday bible study, until she was no longer able to go. She also looked forward to her weekly visits from her pastor.

Sandy leaves to cherish her memories a devoted goddaughter, Victoria (Donnie) Pickford, Sr.; grand-godson, Donnie Pickford, Jr.; two sisters, Ethel Faust (Barnwell, South Carolina) and Evelyn (Clinton) Williams (Charlotte, North Carolina); brother, Marion Faust (Blackville, South Carolina); aunt, Elizabeth (Gerald) Washington (Gardena, California); nieces, Renee Faust and Debra Faust (Blackville, South Carolina); devoted cousins, Frances Mote and David (Emma) Young (all of Jacksonville, Florida); and a host of other nieces, nephews, grandnieces, grandnephews, cousins, and friends.
