23rd Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures, he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul; he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou prepares a table before me in the presence of mine enemies, thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

Obituary

James Hardy Johnson, Jr. was born on April 28, 1926 in Jacksonville, Florida to the late William and Virginia Little. James accepted Christ into his life and was a faithful member of Word Vine Christian Fellowship, Inc., under the leadership of Bishop Larry W. Minor. He was a graduate of Old Stanton High School, Class of 1944. James served in the United States Army in World War II. After years of service, he furthered his career at Jefferson Smurfit where he served as a Corrugator Manager, later retiring after 45 years of service.

James departed this life on Monday, December 5, 2016. He was preceded in death by his wife, Kenneth Mae Johnson on December 28, 2008.

James leaves to cherish his memories: a loving and devoted son, James Kenneth Johnson (Denise); grandson, Kenneth DeShay Johnson (Kandace); two great-grandchildren, DeShay Frazier and Jaelah Johnson; sister-in-law, Muzetta Butler (Jimmy); brother-in-law, Herbert Morton; cousin, Gregory Clair; and a host of nieces, nephews, and special friends.

Those We Love Remain With Us

Those we love remain with us for love itself lives on,
and cherished memories never fade because a love one's gone.
Those we love can never be more than a thought apart,
far as long as there is memory,
they'll live on in our hearts.
