Life Reflections of Betty Ruth Miller

“Virtuous Woman”

Who can find a virtuous woman?
for her price is far above rubies.
Strength and honour are her clothing;
and she shall rejoice in time to come.
She openeth her mouth with wisdom;
and in her tongue is the law of kindness.
She looketh well to the ways of her household,
and eateth not the bread of idleness.
Her children arise up, and call her blessed;
her husband also, and he praiseth her.
Many daughters have done virtuously,
but thou excellest them all.
Favour is deceitful, and beauty is vain:
but a woman that feareth the Lord,
she shall be praised.
Give her of the fruit of her hands;
and let her own works praise her in the gates.

Proverbs 31:10, 25-31 (KJV)

“For I am ready to be offered and the time of my departure is at hand. I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course. I have kept the faith. Henceforth, there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day.”

2 Timothy 4:6-8a

Betty Ruth Miller was born on January 16th, 1935 in Mandarin, Florida to the late Gracie Thomas Howard and Marie Moseley. She attended the Duval County Public Schools. Betty was saved as a young woman, joined the Pentecostal Church of the First Born and married Deacon Eddie Thomas. She took in and cared for her grandmother, Catherine for 10 years and her grand aunt, Louise for 8 years.

Betty later met and married Leroy Miller and joined Gateway Pentecostal Mission UHC, under the leadership of Pastor Elder, Clifford Vickers and Assistant Pastor, Elder Louise Vickers. She became a devoted mother to the church where she loved to praise the Lord in song and dance until the Lord called her home.

While working as a volunteer for the City of Jacksonville’s Independent Living RESPITE Program for almost 20 years, Betty, as a senior herself loved meeting her elderly clients and making them laugh until her health recently prohibited her to continue.

Betty loved fishing, her vegetable garden, her flowers, daily walking, meeting her neighbors, and kids. She also loved cooking and baking cakes for love ones, especially on their birthday.

Betty departed this life on Friday, December 9th, 2016 in Jacksonville, Florida at the age of 81. She was preceded in death by her parents; sons, Jerry, Joseph, Charles, and Ronald Howard; grandmother, Catherine; brother, Bobbie Lee Davis; aunt, Louise; special aunt, Leola Burney; and Eddie.
