My Words To You

If I could share the words of wisdom I've learned through this life journey. I would say, this life can deal you some unexpected curves. As a person I did my very best. I know I made my share of mistakes and I hurt many along the way. If I didn't get a chance to ask your forgiveness before my home going please know I am truly sorry and I do apologize to each of you I may have hurt. When I learned better I did better so please find it in your heart to forgive me. The power of forgiveness is one of the greatest things I've learned before leaving this world, I also found the greatest love, that is Jesus if you don't know him I admonish you to get to know him as your personal Lord and Savior like I did. Heaven is a beautiful place and I wouldn't trade it for a moment. Just know I love you, and my heart's desire is that you know Christ so that I can see you again in heaven. Dry your tears for I'm no longer suffering and I'm surrounded by so much love, peace, joy, and happiness of my love ones before me. Forgive one another, love one another, and most importantly give your life to Christ. Tell my children I love them, Remember I love you all.
