"A Letter from Heaven"

When tomorrow starts without me, and I am not there to see, if the sun should rise and find your eyes all filled with tears for me; I wish so much you wouldn't cry the way you did today, while thinking of the many things, we didn't get to say. I know how much you love me, as much as I love you, and each time that you think of me, I know you will miss me too; When tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart, for every time you think of me, I'm right there, in your heart.

Acknowledgement

The family of the late Latrsha S. Jerido would like to thank our many family members and friends for every act of kindness that you have shown during our time of bereavement. May God bless each of you.

Latrsha leaves to cherish her memories a daughter, Darielle Winn; mother, Catherine Rawls; sisters, Shalonda White (Johnny), Clover Simpkins, Regina Anderson, and Shirley Warford; brothers, Richard L. Hayes, Bert Jackson, and Dell Jackson; aunt, Carolyn Creighton; special relatives, Shawntell Bell and Carlita Simpkins; special friends, Elbony Porter, Jessica Ward, Sentoria Jackson, Latifah Joseph, and Darren Johnson; a host of other relatives and friends.

To Those I Love & Those That Love Me

When I am gone, release me, let me go; I have so many things to see and do; you must not tie yourself to me with tears; be happy that we had these years; I gave you my love, you can only guess how much you gave me in happiness; I thank you for the love you have shown but now it's time I traveled on alone.

So grieve a while for me, if grieve you must then let your grief be comforted by trust. It's only for a while that we must part, so bless the memories within your heart.

I won't be far away for life goes on so if you need me, call and I will come though you can't see me or touch me, I'll be near. And if you listen with your heart, you will hear, all my love around you, loud and clear. And then, when you must come this way alone, I'll greet you at Heaven's gate with a smile and a "Welcome Home."
