The Broken Chain

Although my heart wasn't ready, I knew God was going to call you name; in life I loved you dearly, in death I will do the same. It broke my heart to loose you, You did not go alone; for part of me went with you, the day God called you home. You left me beautiful memories. Your love is still my guide; and through we cannot see you, you're always by my side. Our family chain is broken, and nothing seems the same; but as God calls us one by one, the chain will link again.

~From the heart of your beloved wife, Emma

Life Reflections

For

Deacon Jimmie Lewis Mosley

Jimmie Lewis Mosley was born on August 25, 1931 to Charlie Mosley and Cilia Glee in Eastman, Georgia. He met and married Emma Turner on December 31, 1949 in Hawkinsville, Georgia. Jimmie confessed Christ at an early age and was baptized, joining Evergreen Missionary Baptist Church where he became an ordained deacon and served faithfully for many years.

Jimmie was granted his wings at the age of 85, on December 26, 2016. His final days were spent surrounded by family members and friends he touched in some way throughout the course of his very memorable life. He was preceded in death by his parents, Charlie and Cilia Mosley; brothers, Milton Mosley, Joe Mosley, Michael Mosley, and Henry Mosley; sisters, Lois V. Mosley and Lillie M. Powell.

Jimmie leaves behind to cherish his memory a loving wife of almost 67 years, Emma Mosley; children, Louis Mosley (Margaret Mosley), Ruthene Tukes (late Johnnie Tukes), Ida Robinson (late Chris Robinson), and Barbara Sheppard; eleven grandchildren; twenty great-grandchildren; one great great-grandchild; brothers, Deon Charlie Mosley and James Mosley (Mildred); sister-in-laws, Martha Mosley, Dot Mosley, Susan Mosley, Ella Way, and Rubye Anderson; other relatives and friends.

God Took Him To His Loving Home

God saw him getting tired, a cure was not to be.

He wrapped him in his loving arms and whispered "Come with me".

He suffered much in silence, his spirit did not bend.

He faced his pain with courage, until the very end.

He tried so hard to stay with us but his fight was not in vain,

God took him to His loving home
and freed him from the pain.
