

He Will Call

(Job 14: 13-15)

Life, like a mist, appears for just a day, then disappears tomorrow.
All that we are can quickly fade away,
replaced with tears and sorrow. If a man should die, can he live again? Hear the promise God has made.

He will call; The dead will answer. They shall live at his command.
For he will have a longing for the work of his own hand.
So have faith, and do not wonder, for our God can make us stand.
And we shall live forever, As the work of his own hand.

Friends of our God, though they may pass away, will never be forsaken. All those asleep who in God's memory stay, from death he will awaken.
Then we'll come to see all that life can be Paradise eternally.

Obituary

Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out.

John 5:28

Edward Wyman also known as “Ya-Ya” was born on April 11, 1934 in Jasper County, South Carolina. He attended the Public Schools in his hometown. Later, Edward moved to Savannah, Georgia and then relocated to Jacksonville, Florida. He was employed by Florida Machine and Foundry where he worked for many years and was able to retire from the company.

Edward departed this life on Friday, January 27, 2017. He was preceded in death by his brother, Billie.

Edward leaves to cherish his memories: a loving and caring companion of 38 years, Ms. Charlie Mae Brown; his children, Bernard Gadson (Carla), Sandra Dunham, Elana Green (Tommy), Rena Jackson (James), Leedell Gadson, Edna Mae Williams (Ronnie), Rozida Lewis, Richidine Best (Ronald), Allen Wyman (Beverly), Delicia Wyman, Erica Wyman, and Faith Wyman; brothers, Dan, Oliver, and Johnnie (Rosa); sisters, Mary Lennell (Levi), Rose, Dorothea, and Pearl Smalls (Kenneth); In addition Edward leaves his adopted family, a loving daughter and son-in-law, Frances and Alonzo Stevens; a loving and supportive grandson, Charles Moreland (Kim); a caring son, Frederick Brown (his daughter), Keisha McBride; a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, other relatives, and friends.

*Ya-Ya was a quiet man with inner strength and conviction.
This program is meant to honor him and respect his memory.*
